ORDER:

A Multipurpose Cultural Complex (MPCC) to promote art and culture has been taken up for construction under the CFA scheme and the works are not yet completed due to technical and financial constraints. In a review meeting held on 16-12-2013 a decision was taken to transfer the subject matter from the Andhra Pradesh Tourism Development Corporation (APTDC), which was executing the balance works, to the Dr. Y.S.R. National Institute of Tourism & Hospitality Management (NITHM), Hyderabad, for expeditious completion of the works duly releasing the funds immediately required therefor. Accordingly in the reference 1st read above, the APTDC has been requested to transfer the relevant records of the construction works of the MPCC to NITHM to enable it for taking up the future works and to make pending payment to the contractor. In pursuance of the said decision in the said meeting, the Director, NITHM while communicating its willingness to take up the works, has requested for release of an amount of Rs.2.00 crores on urgent basis to initiate further action.

2. The Government, after due examination of the matter, issue the following orders.

- a) All the pending and future works of the MPCC shall be undertaken for execution as per the time schedule on urgent basis by the NITHM as per the directions of the Government from time to time duly submitting progress reports every fortnight.
- b) The APTDC shall transfer all the relevant records of the works of the MPCC to NITHM as already directed in the reference 1st read above.
- c) Sanction is hereby accorded for release of an amount of Rs.2,00,00,000 (Rupees two crores only) to the Director, Dr. Y.S.R. National Institute of Tourism & Hospitality Management, Hyderabad to execute the pending and future works on priority basis.

3. The amount sanctioned in Para 2(c) above shall be drawn from the available funds under Tourism Project Accounts of PMU maintained by YAT&C (PMU) Department.
